

Lockerbie Ice Rink

Senior Gents Competitions

The final of the senior gents competition was played at Lockerbie Ice Rink last week for the Sandy Smith trophy. The ice charges for this competition were partially funded by Communities Mental Health and Well Being Fund for Adults. This is a Scottish Government Fund administered in Dumfries & Galloway by Third Sector Dumfries and Galloway. The final was between the rinks skipped by David Carlyle and Jim Hogg. After the first three ends the score was two shots each, before the Carlyle rink scored on the next four ends to win by eleven shots to two.

The winners were David Carlyle (Skip), Roy Broatch, Terry Benest & Robin McLeod and the runners up were Jim Hogg (Skip), Stuart Mair, Ted Hills & Tim Schoolar. Richard Smith, on behalf of the ice rink management oversaw the presentation & thanked the above organisation for their funding and all who organised the competition before asking Anne Smith to present the prizes to the runners up and winners.
