Express Tyres Trophy

The final of the Express Tyres Trophy sponsored by Express Tyre Service, which included payment of all competitors ice fees was played last Wednesday at Lockerbie ice rink. The final was between the rinks skipped by Stuart Grieve and Marion Murdoch. In the final Grieve led by four shots to three going into the last end, with Murdoch lying shot with a stone each left, however Grieve drew round a guard onto the button with last stone, from which Murdoch could not regain shot leaving Grieve the winner by five shots to three. The winning team consisted of Stuart Grieve (skip), Les Goodwin, John Jardine and Margaret Rogers with the runners up being Marion Murdoch (Skip), Graham Anderson, Tina Johnston & George Taylor.

David Stewart, on behalf of the ice rink management welcomed everyone to the final and presentation. He thanked the sponsors for their generous sponsorship, all competitors and ice rink staff before presenting the prizes to the finalists.
